SOUTH WOODSTOCK.
A Heroic Case of Repentance.
Up in our little village on Saturday night, Sept. 2d, a well known citizen had taken from his house seven hundred dollars in cash and checks. About dusk the following Sunday night a slight noise was heard in one part of the house and a little later the pocketbook with funds intact was found near the threshold of the door leading from the rear of the house.
This thief must have been sincerely affected by a sense of guilt and cannot be classed among those referred to by Solomon when he declared that "The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them;
because they refuse to do judgment." Such instances are rare in Woodstock.

Our several apple kings in this section of the town will have quite an abundant harvest this fall, and a very good crop is reported throughout the town.

Many from here attended the annual Grange picnic held this year near the head of Lake Christopher, where the members were entertained by the proprietor of Cranestone Cottage, E. R.
Freeman.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. George
Cushman gave a reception at the home

Reunion of Veterans.
The annual reunion of Co. F, 9th
Maine, and Co. C, 8th Maine Veterans, was held at West Sumner on Wednesday,
Aug. 30. This association and that of Summer united.
Comrade Frank J. Brown presided as president of both associations. At the business meeting of the two companies, C and F, the following officers were elected:

Pres.—Daniel A. Rowe.
V. Pres.—J. A. Noyes and Frank J. Brown.
Sec. Treas.—F. L. Wyman.

It was voted to meet next year at West Sumner, under the management of Comrade D. A. Rowe, the new president of the association.

A bountiful dinner was spread in the vestry of the church by W. A. Barrows Relief Corps, the ladies furnishing everything that the stomach could wish.
About 150 sat down to the tables. The vestry was decorated with red, white and blue tissue paper, numerous flags
and beautiful bouquets.

After dinner all marched up into the church to the music of life and drum
played by Comrades Warren and Bridgman of Buckfield. Fine music was furnished by the West Sumner choir who gave to us the old war songs of '61
and '65.

A portion of the time was taken up by the veterans in short speeches, and then Hon. John P. Swasey was called on as the speaker of the afternoon. He dwelt on the glory and prosperity of the country
brought about by sacrifices of its citizen soldiers in the great conflict, but said he wanted the country to do something more. He wanted it to provide well for those of its defenders who still remain alive, in providing liberal pensions. We all had confidence in his talk on this subject, because we all know of his loyal action in defending the Sullow-ay pension bill in Congress.

The reunion of the two societies closed
its very interesting exercises by singing America.

NO NEED TO STOP WORK.
When your doctor orders you to stop and failing in health, day by day, but you must work as long as you can stand.

give you strength, and a vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up. Don't be weak, sickly or ailing when Electric Bitters will benefit you from the first dose. Thousands bless them for their glorious health and strength. Try them. Every bottle is mittee in charge. The program in the afternoon was excellent, consisting of music by the choir, a discussion of the question, What is the most useful implement on the farm; piano solos by Mrs. Helen Garcelon; songs by Mrs.

Bertha Keniston; singing by Kezar Lake
Male Quartet; remarks by visiting members, etc. There were grangers from

OTISFIELD.
Marion Elena Davis.
"Twas at thy door, O friend, and not at mine
That I met the angel of the morning,
Pausing, descended, and with voice divine Whispered a word that had a sound like death."

The angel "with the amaranthine wreath pausing, descended," and little Marion Davis, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Davis of Otisfield, after a long illness passed away Sunday morning, Aug. 27th.

Early in May it became evident that the child was not well and after a hurried consultation she was taken to the C. M. G. hospital at Lewiston, where she underwent two operations in less than a month. In the latter part of June in a critical condition she was brought home, where she gained a little until the first of August, when she underwent a third operation from which she gradually failed until the end came Sunday morning.

During her entire illness of four months, she was tenderly cared for day and night by a loving mother, and everything that medical science or a mother's love could do was done.

Marion Elena is survived by a twin sister, Marjorie May, so much her counterpart that only her own people could tell them apart.

They were beautiful children so devoted to each other that wherever one was found the other was sure to be, and the separating of these little ones casts a gloom not alone in the immediate family
but throughout the entire community.

This little bud lovingly mourned for here, has gone to fairer fields and a better life.

"There is no death: what seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portals we call Death."

Mrs. Gilman Nutting is in very poor health.
Arthur Smith is working in Harrison
corn shop.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable
by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind,
discourages and lessens ambition; beauty,
vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear
when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent
that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with the weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine smells the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble,
and both need the same great remedy.
The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-
cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle
by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all
about Swamp-Root,
including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address,
Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A. E. Morse of South Paris had brood mare and colt by "American Law," mare being by "Paris Boy."

G. L. Delano of Norway exhibited a promising four-months-old colt weighing 540 pounds.

W. W. Maxim of South Paris had Nelsons by Nelson with foal Alice by Alonolan.

E. P. Morrill, Norway, had out his two-year-old iron grey colt and this animal attracted considerable comment, owing to his perfect shape.

Scott Colby, Paris, exhibited mare and colt by American Law.

E. Payson McAllister, Norway, had a sucking colt by Brown Prince, which drew considerable attention.

Chas. A. Merrill's, 1 year, filly and mare in the draft division drew considerable attention.

H. D. Tuttle, South Paris, also showed well with his sucking colt of good weight and color.

J. S. & J. H. Millett, Norway, were on deck as usual with a strong exhibit. The two-year-old draft by Pearson weighing 3850 pounds proved strong also the 3½ months sucking colt by same sire drew flattering remarks.

A large number of exhibits could not be recorded owing to the lack of proper description tags which were thoughtlessly overlooked when the entry was made.

The Drawing Contests.

The drawing of oxen and horses for Wednesday commenced at a little past one in the afternoon and continued until about six-thirty. There was a good crowd out during the afternoon to watch the drawing in spite of the cold and which swept the grounds. The first class to draw was the 7 feet, 6 inches and under.

Those to draw were: R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, whose oxen girted 7 feet, 3 inches and pulled the load 74 feet, 3 inches and won 2d prize.

C. S. Hayes of Oxford was second to pull. His oxen girted 7 feet, 6 inches and pulled the load 72 feet, 9 inches and took the 1st prize.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, came third. The oxen girted 7 feet, 5 inches and moved the load 7 feet, 7 inches and took 3d prize.

The second pulling was by the 7 feet, 2 inches class. The oxen weighed between 3500 and 4000 pounds.

L. W. Whitman of South Paris was the first to pull. His oxen girted 6 feet, 11 inches and pulled the load 212 feet.

R. K. Morrill & Son of Norway pulled second. His oxen girted 7 feet, 1 inch and took the load 243 feet and won 3d prize.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, His oxen girted 7 feet, 2 inches and pulled the load 357 feet, 9 inches, taking 1st money.

The next class of pulling was by the 3-year-old steers and some good work was done.

J. A. Sturtevant of South Paris was the first to pull and moved the 3800 pound load 14 feet, 3 inches.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, came second and pulled it 183 feet, 6 inches.

R. K. Morrill & Son's horses weighed 2640 pounds with their harness on and took the load 41 feet, 3 inches.

W. W. Ripley of South Paris came fifth in the pulling match with his horses weighing 2500 and moved the load 64 feet, 10 inches, taking 3d prize.

The last to pull was J. W. Thayer of South Paris. His horses weighed 2470 and moved the load 7 feet, 7 inches.

There was some exceptional good drawing among the oxen and especially among the horses. There was a long list entered, more than usual, and the interest of the crowd was kept until almost dark, when the time keeper was obliged to take a lantern to see to keep the time and score. The horse of Ripley did a good job of pulling and received the heartiest applause of the crowd.

One of the interesting features of Tuesday's program was the drawing of horses which took place in front of the new grand stand. Lots were drawn and the order of pulling commenced and called out a good crowd.

F. W. Noyes of Norway was third. His team moved the load 27 feet 9 in. Weight of horses 2680. Weight of load 5760 pounds.

A. W. Walker & Son of South Paris, was seventh and their team went 35 feet 7 inches. Weight of horses 2710.

7 Feet 8 Inches or Under.

After the drawing of the horses came the drawing of the oxen. Three were entered namely, C. F. Hazen of Oxford, whose oxen took the load 87 feet; R. K. Morrill & Son's oxen took 45 feet 6 inches and another of R. K. Morrill & Son's oxen carried it 32 feet and took the prize.

The committee in charge of the drawing was C. R. Bean, Hiram, Joseph Matheson, Solon, and George M. Stevens, Howe's Corner, Turner.

The drawing of oxen was resumed on Thursday morning with as much interest as was shown Wednesday.

There were three entries in the 6 foot, 6 inch class. These were C. R. Wilson, Bryant Pond. His oxen girt 6 feet, 6 inches and pulled the load of 3600 pounds, 228 feet, taking 2d prize.

G. G. Abbott & Son of Norway. His oxen girt 6 feet, 2 inches and pulled the load 232 feet, taking 1st prize.

L. E. Everett, West Paris, took the load 221 feet and took 2d prize.

The 3rd lot of drawing was by the 2 year old class with a load of 3600 pounds.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, drew the first chance to pull. His oxen girt, 6 feet, 6 inches and after some struggling carried the drag 77 feet and the cheers of the crowd.

Charles E. Hadley, Sumner, came next. His oxen girt 5 feet, 4 inches and drew the load 9 feet, 4 inches.

G. G. Abbott was first to pull in the 6 foot, 10 class, with a weight of about 4000 pounds. The oxen girt 6 feet, 6 inches and moved the load 8 feet, 3 inches.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, won 2d. Oxen girt 6 feet, 10 inches and carried it 15 feet, 4 inches.

Fred Corbett, South Paris, came 3d. His oxen girt 6 feet, 9 inches, and claimed the load 6 feet, 6 inches.

Frank W. Penley, Paris, won 1st with his oxen that girt 6 feet, 9 and 11 inches. They pulled the load 18 feet, 4.

Two entries were made in the drawing of 1 year-olds. Z. W. Mills was first and the young fellows took the drag and gave it a good chase around the grounds and took first prize.

A. K. Morrill & Son came on with his yoke of year-olds, although he did not move the drag as far as the other cattle. They began slow and then with a dart and a bound leaped down the line, clearing men, woman and children the length of the line, then with a sweep took the other side and cleared that. People were cheering and running for safety on all sides, but acknowledge it was the most fun of any of the drawing.

Three entries were made for the drawing of the sweepstake oxen. R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, pulled first and took third prize, pulling the load 21 feet, 7 inches.

C. S. Hayes of Oxford pulled it 24 feet, 6 inches.

R. K. Morrill & Son, Norway, pulled it 24 feet 8 inches and took first.

The 2400 pound class for horses was pulled. L. S. Turner of Buckfield pulled first. The horses weighed 2320 and drew the load 120 feet, 3 inches.

E. S. Abbott, Norway, came next with his horses weighing 2330 pounds. They pulled the load 115 feet.

The sweepstake horses were the next to pull. There were four entries. J. B. Robinson's team took the load of 6638 pounds 55 feet and won third.

Edmund Emery, West Paris, took it 30 feet, 3 inches.

Young Bros., South Paris, pulled it 72 feet, 8 inches. This pulling was as interesting as any that had been on the grounds. The horses both knuckled down and gave the load some pretty good lifts at one pull, and loud was the applause.

N. S. Stowell of Dixfield won 2d prize by a pull of 69 feet, 11 inches.

Swine.

Dr. Alfred King has a 5 months old Yorkshire sow.

W. T. Knightly of South Paris shows us his 1-year-old evenly belted Hampshire sow, also his Hampshire sow with six pigs which are two weeks old and his Yorkshire sow with nine pigs.

Charles E. Millett of Norway exhibits his year old white Chester sow with 9 pigs and his year old Chester sow.

Joe Thurlow of South Paris has his 10 weeks old Chester sow.

C. C. Davis of Oxford has brought up his Berkshire sow with 6 pigs, also his Berkshire sow.

Dr. Alfred King of Paris has his nice large 5 months old Yorkshire sow, pig on exhibition.

Sheep.

Harold Whitman of Buckfield has a nice flock of 12 Grade Hampshire sheep, a flock of 8 Grade Hampshire lambs, a flock of 3 full blooded Hampshires, also a full blooded Hampshire buck.

Dr. Alfred King has a flock of seven full blooded sheep, also a flock of 12 Grade Hampshire sheep, also a flock of 8 Grade Hampshire lambs, a flock of 3 full blooded Hampshires, also a full blooded Hampshire buck.

J. S. & J. H. Millett have two nice looking flock of sheep, also a flock of pure bred Oxford Down lambs and a pure bred Down Buck.

J. M. Thayer of Paris has a flock of long horned pure bred sheep, also pure bred buck. He has advertised his ewes here for sale.

A. F. Jackson of Norway has a flock of 12 sheep.

Agricultural Implements.

The exhibit of husbandry was not large yet proved attractive owing to the number of people who came to see the grand stand the Cummings Mfg Co. of South Paris, had several styles of their plows, and the Worcester Kemp manure spreaders. W. K. Clifford, South Paris, showed the Worcester Buckeye mower.

A. W. Walker of South Paris, showed a new style of the Blizard Eastgate cutter, the Gale Baldwin Fodder cutter, the Deering and Osborne mowing machines. Thompson's Root Cutter No. 7. In conjunction with his exhibit, D. W. Kimball, New England manager for the Oliver Chilled Plow Works of South Bend, Indiana, was demonstrating a raytable sulky plow which has proved a great seller here, through the A. W. Walker & Son Agency. He also showed the regular and the new disk harrows and cultivators. Corn planters and the Balmor & Taylor Agricultural Tool Co., Chicopee Falls, Mass., were a prominent exhibit in this collection.

The Jungle show.

Prof. Litwood Flint, the Barnum of Oxford County was with us again on the same lot and had a collection of interesting animals. This show is one of our best attractions and is well patronized by both old and young as can be easily proved by the large number of the crowds drifting daily into the tent where this animal dealer or his assistant, Bert Flint is constantly explaining the characteristics of the occupants in each of the two enclosures.

Prof. Flint is owner and manager of the well known "Porcupine Farm" at Waterford which supplies the circus and side show trade all over the United States with these sharp quilled animals, also any other living creatures that the market may demand. The genial showman has just returned from a summer engagement with the Boston and Maine where he placed a large exhibit in their parks as a free feature attraction.

Prof. Wm. R. Chapman of Bethel and New York is an interested patron of the Judges' stand, Thursday. His knowledge of good horse flesh is equal to his talent as conductor of large musical organizations. The Professor's new trick, Masterpieces, (without a mark) carried away the money on the 25th of Wednesday, yet could easily have forced the issue for a closer margin. The horse was certainly handicapped on the start by drawing seventh position. Overcoming the lead in the large field that started. This little horse will be heard from next season unless Prof. Chapman changes his mind.

Prof. Baker, the colored entertainer from Lewiston, rendered his annual program with his vocal cords, auto harp and cigar, Thursday.

Carrolla was again a feature attraction Thursday. Mrs. Nelson gave her a mile and a half at this performance, the last quarter being done in 39 seconds.

SKYSCRAPER LIFT

Tragedy of the Elevator's Ups and Downs.

SOME ADVICE BY SAMMIS.

Don't Correct a Caller's Grammar. 'Ware the Angel—Don't Be Gay With the Boss—Don't Monkey With Wall Street Tips.

By M. QUAD.
(Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.)

YOU can make a lawyer or doctor out of most any sort of boy, but when it comes down to an elevator boy that's different.

He must be born for the place and keep on growing better every day until he retires to a chicken farm on a competence.

It is easy enough to scold an elevator up and down, stopping at the different floors. That's simply muscular action. That will take any boy along for four weeks, and then, unless he has got the stuff in his head, he must go.

I made my first mistake by correcting a broker's grammar, but it was my first and only one in that direction. Old Brown was a speculator who had an office on the tenth floor. One day a broker blew in and inquired of me:

"Bub, has old Brown went up yet?"

"Old Brown has gone up, sir," I replied, with a great deal of emphasis on the gone.

That broker was worth a million dollars, and the idea of poor but respectable boy correcting his speech made him boil over. He went straight to the agent and had me laid off for a month. The first trip he took in my cage after I came back he said to me:

"I have taught you a lesson, sonny, and I hope you will profit by it."

I made no reply. I had learned my lesson. Grammar is all right in Sunday school or at a moving picture show, but there's no call for it around a skyscraper. Any old language will do.

I didn't regard the engineer of a skyscraper as much, and I made another mistake there. I had held my place long when he insisted that I spend the noon hour playing poker with him. I refused, and with twenty-four hours I was sent for by the agent of the building, who said:

"Sammis, we have got to keep the engineer from being lonely or he'll quit the job."

"I'll get a jewsharp for him, sir."

"You'll have to do better than that. You'll have to play poker with him or go. We can't have him sticking your cage between floors a dozen times a day."

And so I went down every noon for an hour and let that engineer stick me at penny ante. Sometimes he won as much as 50 cents. When I had a full house he had a way of making a straight beat it. I had almost come to the conclusion that I was not born for an elevator boy when the engineer dropped dead of heart disease before me. I had held a royal flush to his pair of nines and beaten him out of 2 cents, and it was too much for his gentle spirit.

"Knocks" the Wrong Tenant.

I thought I was doing my duty when I went to the agent and told him that all signs indicated that the terra cotta man on the eighth floor was going to sneak out without squaring up his rent. The agent turned on me in a ferocious way and shouted:

"Sammis, who's running this skyscraper?"

"You are."

"Then keep your paws off or skate!"

Later on I found out that the terra cotta man, who owed three months' rent, was the agent's brother-in-law and that the lost rent was charged up to "repairs." Around a skyscraper you never know who is who and who he is related to.

Many a manly elevator boy who promised well at the start has blazed his career by falling in love with a typist and stenographer. There is no one to warn him of his danger. His mother at home fondly imagines that no female under fifty years old is employed around a skyscraper, and the car starter thinks it's fun to see a poor boy lose his heart and his job at the same time. The boy is paying strict attention to business when along comes a human angel. She's a blond. She has curly hair. She has a charming way of twisting her mouth as she talks. She calls him "Charles" and begins a flirtation that turns him to his doom. After the thing has gone on for about three weeks some one dozes off a tenant with a heart of stone goes to the agent and says:

"Master, I'm going to leave this coop."

"Why, what's wrong?"

"It makes me tired."

"But tell me what?"

"That cub of a boy and that dolly of a girl! I can't stand it no longer. I thought this was a place of business, but I find it a nursery for calf love."

Then to keep the old coon from moving out the poor boy gets the bounce, and curly head giggles over it and lays for the next.

In Wrung With the Owner.

I nearly ruined my career by getting the idea that the owner of the building was a gent who wanted to know all his employees personally. He came down now and then, but always took some other elevator. I thought this was because we had not been introduced, and I put on my Sunday clothes one evening and called at the house. Need I describe the tragedy that followed when I introduced myself and offered to shake hands to show there was no hard feelings on my part? Several landscape painters have told me that they would have given much to have been there and caught the local coloring.

Woman's Danger Periods Made Safe

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots
and herbs. Here is proof:

Natick, Mass.,—"I cannot express what I went through during the Change of Life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations and could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I had a tumor.

"I read one day of the wonderful cures made
by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Nathan B. Gorton, 51 No. Main St., Natick, Mass.

ANOTHER SIMILAR CASE.

Cornwallville, N. Y.,—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time for Change of Life, nervousness, and a fibroid growth.

"Two doctors advised me to go to the hospital, but one day while I was away visiting,
I met a woman who told me to take Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and I know it helped me wonderfully. I am very thankful that I was told to try Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. Boughton, Cornwallville, N. Y., Greene Co.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—
they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine.
Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge.
Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
